Scheduled Business

DISCUSSION ITEMS

- a. Next steps for Illuminating Albany's History Light Mural 3:35 p.m.
Lyddane informed the commission that their project was not what the grant review panel was looking for in regard to tourism generation. Lyddane and Miller followed up with a potential partner, and they showed interest in this project. They recommended other grants that the commission could apply to for this project. One such grant is due December 1st. MacGregor asked about wanting support letters for this grant application and named various supporters in the community. Lyddane will share the information on the mural to the commission. Brief discussion followed.

b. Annual Council Presentation Review

3:51 p.m.

This is the second year the Arts Commission is presenting to council. Lyddane shared the rough draft presentation slides created and asked for notes. Streitberger will present the slides at the presentation. Brief discussion followed.

ACTION ITEMS

4:08 p.m.

a. City Hall Gallery Artists-Approval of New Submissions

There were no submissions. Bright spoke about gallery artist submissions and displays. Brief discussion followed.

Business from the Commission

4:18 p.m.

Miller shared a thought about the gallery and said accessibility is a strength, and the gallery space being open to the community, including children, is unique and could be a real strength. Bright shared an idea of an art table for kids. Miller suggested using Parents Square to reach out for a kid's art show. MacGregor informed the commission that the Art Center is having its annual fundraiser. Streitberger informed the commission about the upcoming art show at the museum. Brief discussion followed.

Staff Updates

4:31 p.m.

Lyddane informed the commission the November meeting date is a holiday, and the commission will not meet. Lyddane reached out to the owner of the Flynn Block and Saint Francis hotel, and they were not interested in the deaccessioned art pieces. The Commission now has pieces to start to sell.

MOTION: Streitberger motioned to deaccession the Crab Shack painting. Bright seconded, motion passes 5-0.

Brief discussion followed.

Next Meeting Date

The next regularly scheduled meeting is on Tuesday, December 9, 2025.

Adjournment

Hearing no further business, Nolan Streitberger adjourned the meeting at 4:35 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Reviewed by,

Artist's statement or bio that could be shared in marketing *	ARTIST STATEMENT My human figures are not simply a representation of an individual; they are soul portraits. I intend through strong colors and textures, bold brush stroke and composition communicate to the viewer the emotional clues the model portraits in his/her demeanor, many times bringing to mind a particular subject or theme of the past.
